BEACON BOOSTERS

The Beacon Boosters June Meeting was called to order in the Deal home at 6:12 p.m. on June 13. The minutes, Treasurer's report, Parliamentarian report, and Reporters report were read, along with the community leaders report. The Council Representatives report mentioned that Beacon Boosters were required to submit a professional development idea for the district. A decision was made and the club will be submitting the idea "Fiscal Responsibility". A West Plains team day and Wind baseball game will take place on June 24th. For new business a movement was made for the club to pay for a meal purchased at Traditions after a gardening session for $81.41. Taylor Knoll had a June birthday and the activity for the meeting was swimming. The meeting was adjourned at 6:43 p.m. and the July meeting will be held at the fairgrounds.

WIDE AWAKE

The June meeting of the Wide Awake 4-H Club was called to order at 7:15 p.m. on June 13, 2022 at the Finney County Fairgrounds 4-H Building. The roll call for this meeting was name a fair project that you are working on. Jillian Schmeekle gave the following parliamentarian tips: stand up when speaking, always say Madame or Mr. President when addressing the President, when making a motion always say I move, and vote by using a show of hands or secret ballad. Some important dates are June 15, 2022 when State Fair commercial heifer and small animal nominations due; June 23, 2022 is the South West Kansas District Horse Show in Dodge City; June 30, 2022 and July 6, 2022 the 4-H Pumpkins and Untamed Veggies project gardening will be at the Extension Office from 6:00-8:00 p.m.; June 21, 2022 there will be a 4-H and FFA Auction Meeting at the 4-H building at 7:00 p.m.; July 18-24, 2022 is the Finney County Fair. Parents check your e-mails as there is a lot of important dates coming up. Also, Finney County Fair books are available at the Extension Office. Projects talks this meeting included Cort Baker on how he feeds his pigs, Lizzy Machwinnie on her goats, Jade Ardery on her sheep, and Benjamin Price on his breeding heifer Gizmo. For recreation we played swim fishy swim. The meeting was adjourned. The next meeting will be July 11, 2022 at 7:00 p.m. at the Finney County Fairgrounds. This meeting will be the poster tour.

SHERLOCK STRIVERS

Sherlock Strivers 4-H Club – May 2022
 The Sherlock Strivers 4-H Club held their regularly scheduled monthly meeting on Sunday, May 1, 2022, at Holcomb Elementary School. The meeting was called to order by acting president Austin Elam. Roll Call was – What are your summer plans? Club members recited the Pledge of Allegiance and the 4-H Pledge. In new business, club members discussed the annual club tour and decided to conduct it on the Saturday of the fair. Members will have their exhibits on display and available to show their fellow club members. A discussion was held about possibly painting windows for upcoming Beef Empire Days. Also, it was announced that a Spring Livestock show is coming back to Finney County and would be held on Saturday, June 5. There were no project talks at this meeting. Club members were reminded that YQCA certificates were due to the extension office today, so if that has not been done they need to be turned in as soon as possible. The date of the next meeting was announced and it will be Sunday, June 5. The club sang to the members with May birthdays. Then the meeting was adjourned.

Sherlock Strivers 4-H Club – June 2022
 The regularly scheduled meeting of the Sherlock Strivers 4-H Club was held on Sunday, June 5, 2022 at Holcomb Elementary School. The meeting was called to order by acting president Kendrick Wallace. Roll call was – What is your favorite summer activity? There were 15 members, 4 adults, and 1 guest in attendance. The club recited the Pledge of Allegiance and the 4-H Pledge. The 4-H Council report included and announcement that the livestock auction at the fair would be the same format as the previous two years. Also, club members voted to donate $25 to help 4-H Council purchase appreciation gifts for Fairground staff. Club members were reminded that the club tour would take place on Saturday, July 23 at the fair. The time will be communicated closer to the date. In new business, the Special Olympics Goat Show was discussed. 4-Hers over age 14 with a friendly goat are encouraged to sign up online to participate after the goat show at the fair.
